riveting true life story of a christian palestinian from galilee brings to life the history of modern israel and offers insight into living at peace chacour blends his life story with historical research to reveal a little known side of the arab israeli conflict and the birth of modern israel he touches on controversial questions such as what behind the scenes politics touched off the turmoil in the middle east what does bible prophecy really have to say and can bitter enemies ever be reconciled originally published by chosen books in 1984 and now expanded with a new introduction by the author a new foreword by former secretary of state james a baker iii and a since then epilogue by writer david hazard

me in matthew 25 35 more than two thousand years ago jesus challenged us to welcome and care for the strangers among us how do we fulfill this challenge what does compassion look like today a better country aims to help christians specifically christians in the united states think theologically and practically about the ongoing and changing refugee needs this workbook is divided into six lessons followed by a personal action plan as your application the second edition includes additional questions for discussion along with spiritual practices at the end of each chapter for transformation of mind heart and soul in our posture toward refugee welcome this resource balances information and reflection that will stimulate excellent group discussions and individual study may you be inspired to action and may you develop a heart to welcome refugees with compassion and dignity in jesus s name the theological journal is designed to enable our practitioners to capably integrate theological concepts into their practice the articles are written by ccda members and will challenge us to go deeper theologically while giving us language that will allow us to dialogue outside of the academy theological reflection and engagement among practitioners and with our neighbors can often be strange bedfellows but this should not be the case everyone loves a good story one with interesting characters an intriguing plot lots of twists and turns and a surprise ending storytelling is an entertaining art but it is also instructive and essential to intellectual moral and spiritual growth literature as all art is a gift of divine grace a pathway to mystery each literary experience is slightly beyond our horizon of understanding what a gift literature is when it enhances spirituality each literary moment confounds in order to keep us going and growing the restoration of wonder is the beginning of the inward journey toward the awaiting god soul food contains stories that are both entertaining and inspiring wholesome and heart warming some are humorous others are tragic or sad but all are memorable the collection is divided into five sections 1 personal stories 2 biblical and faith stories 3 classic stories fables and tales 4 literary and historical stories and 5 inspirational stories some of these stories come from personal experience my own and that of family and friends others including myths legends fantasies and tales come from folklore and oral tradition while others are taken from the public domain as you read these stories sequentially or randomly i trust they will aid you in your quest for meaning direction and stability enjoy these stories and may they enhance your journey through life and its manifold seasons i hope you will return to this collection repeatedly finding in these stories courage wisdom and inspiration one of the most persistent if vexing issues facing not just theology but also political theory sociology and other disciplines is the ongoing palestinian israeli conflict for theology the problem is especially nettlesome on account of the church s shared history and tradition with israel palestinians including palestinian christians bear the brunt of suffering and dispossession in the current situation yet are burdened even more by christian political appropriation of zionism through an analysis of palestinian refugee mapping practices for returning to their homeland alain epp weaver takes up the troubled issue of palestinian dispossession and argues against the political theology embedded in zionist cartographic practices that refuse and seek to eliminate evidence of co existence instead alain epp weaver offers a political theology of redrawing the territory compatible with a bi national vision for a shared palestinian israeli future transsexualism is a phenomenon of our time at other times and in other places there have been or still are people not living in the sex of their origin and having a special status in western culture however hormones and surgery have become available through advances in medical science which have made sex change a reality this wide ranging collection of papers describes aspects of the modern history and theology of christianity in the middle east wagner and o neill delve into their vast experience in the middle east to help readers understand what happened when israeli prime minister yitzhak rabin and plo chairman yasser arafat shook hands in a peace agreement on the white house lawn foreword by richard c halverson twin brothers are separated at birth one is given to wealthy mrs lyons and they grow up as friends in ignorance of their fraternity until the inevitable quarrel unleashes a blood bath

this unique resource offers the fascinating account of donald e wagner s personal experience with the middle east and calls western christians to work with middle east christians in healing the pain of jews and palestinians wagner grippingly tells of his early involvement with streams of christianity that treat israel s possession of the holy land as fulfillment of a divine plan that will result in the apocalyptic battle of armageddon
